UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

BROOKLYN OFFICE

INTEL CORPORATION,

Plaintiff,

v.

MOHAMMED A. SHAFIQ, doing business as
INTEL CONTRACTING CO.,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND
INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Plaintiff Intel Corporation ("Intel"), by its attorneys, alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION AND RELIEF SOUGHT

1. This action arises from Defendant Mohammed Shafiq's use of a trade name and service mark – INTEL CONTRACTING CO. – that incorporates and is legally identical to one of the most famous trademarks in the world – INTEL®. By combining “Intel” with the generic words “Contracting Co.,” Defendant is likely to cause confusion that Intel is the source or sponsor of Defendant’s contracting services, or that there is an association or relationship between the companies. In addition, Defendant’s acts are causing, and/or are likely to cause, dilution of the INTEL trademark. Consequently, Intel seeks injunctive relief and damages for injuries that have been, and will continue to be, caused by Defendant’s use of the “Intel Contracting Co.” trade name and service mark (collectively, the “INTEL CONTRACTING Mark”) in violation of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. §§ 1051-1127 et seq.), Federal false designation of origin law (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)), the Federal Trademark Dilution Act of 1995 (15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)), New York statutory trademark dilution law (N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 360-l), deceptive acts and practices under New York law (N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 360-o) and the common law doctrine of unfair competition.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1332, 1338 and 1367. Intel’s claims are, in part, based on violations of the Lanham Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051-1127. The Court has jurisdiction over the state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332, 1338(b), and 1367.

3. Venue lies in the Eastern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c). Intel is informed and believes that Defendant transacts business in this District and may otherwise be found here, and a substantial part of the events, omissions, and injuries giving rise to Intel’s claims occurred in this District.

THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Intel is a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at 2200 Mission College Boulevard, Santa Clara, California. Intel is widely recognized as a world leader in high-technology products and services. Intel's products and services are sold worldwide and throughout the United States, including the Eastern District of New York.

5. Intel is informed and believes, and on that ground alleges, that Defendant Mohammed A. Shafiq is an individual doing business as "Intel Contracting Co." at 504 Beverly Road, Brooklyn, New York 11218. Intel is further informed and believes that Defendant is conducting a general contracting business under said name within this District.

INTEL'S BUSINESS AND MARKS

6. Intel develops, manufactures and sells a variety of computing, communications, and Internet-related software and hardware products and related services. Intel's customers and/or ultimate purchasers have included individual consumers, businesses, schools, computer manufacturers, industrial manufacturers, telecommunications equipment manufacturers, the government, the aircraft industry and the military. In addition, Intel offers a variety of hardware and software solutions for improving the efficiency and productivity of businesses via enhanced supply chain and infrastructure management products and services.

7. For nearly 35 years, Intel has used INTEL as a trade name, trademark and service mark throughout the United States and the world to identify virtually its entire line of products and services. INTEL is one of the most valuable and respected names and trademarks in the world, and among the most famous names and trademarks in the technology industry. As early as 1993, Financial World ranked the INTEL brand as third, behind Coca-Cola and Marlboro. Similarly, from 1996 to the present, Fortune Magazine has annually celebrated Intel as one of the top ten "Most Admired Corporations in America" – an honor Intel has shared alongside such companies as General Electric, Microsoft and Coca-Cola. In 2004, the INTEL brand was ranked fifth in Interbrand's World's Most Valuable Brands Survey, with an estimated value of $33.5 billion.

8. Intel uses INTEL as its "house mark" on or in connection with virtually every product and service it sells. In 2004 alone, Intel sold over $34.2 billion of INTEL branded goods and services and, in the decade ending with 2004, Intel sold over $268 billion of products and services under the INTEL name and mark. In addition, Intel sells directly to the public, through its website at www.theintelstore.com, a variety of non-technology related goods under its INTEL brand, including clothing, accessories, toys, stationary, luggage and traveling gear, watches, key rings, pens and pencils, mugs and water bottles.

9. Intel has for some time focused its efforts on encouraging consumers to create, adopt and use Intel architecture products within the home. In May, 2003, for example, Intel co-founded the Digital Living Network Alliance (DLNA – formerly the Digital Home Working Group). As one of the founders and strong supporters of the DLNA, Intel is among those leading the effort to converge PC, consumer electronics (CE), and mobile technologies in the home. The DLNA believes that it is important for leaders within the PC, CE and mobile industries to stay aligned on digital interoperability, so that the innovative consumer products they deliver can function not just side-by-side, but in concert. Illustrating the importance of digital home technology within Intel's business plan, one of Intel's operating units is the Intel Digital Home Group, formed to maximize business opportunities for Intel architecture products in personal and business computer systems and services, digital home entertainment, and other content delivery systems and services.

10. Intel is the owner of numerous U.S. trademark registrations for the mark INTEL, including the following:

a. Intel is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 914,978 and 938,772 issued on June 15, 1971 and July 25, 1972, respectively, for the mark INTEL for use in connection with integrated circuits, registers and semiconductor memories and equipment for the testing and programming thereof. These registrations, duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office, are valid, subsisting, and incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065. Intel uses the notice of registration, "®," with its INTEL mark pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1111. Copies of these registrations are attached hereto as Exhibits A and B.

b. Intel is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 939,641 issued on August 1, 1972 for the mark INTEL for use in connection with integrated circuits, registers, and semiconductor memories. 11. In addition to using INTEL as a trade name and a trademark, Intel also owns a family of trademarks that incorporate INTEL as a prominent component of the mark. For example, in late 1991, Intel developed and launched a cooperative advertising and licensing program referred to as the "Intel Inside Program." As part of this program, Intel adopted and began to use the trademarks INTEL INSIDE and INTEL INSIDE & SWIRL Logo, and to license this use to PC manufacturers for products such as personal desktop computers, laptop computers and workstations that were designed with genuine Intel microprocessors. Among Intel's many thousands of OEMs ("Original Equipment Manufacturers" – a.k.a. personal computer manufacturers) licensees worldwide are giants of the computer industry such as Dell, Gateway, Hewlett-Packard, IBM, and Sony. As early as 1992, Intel invested $50 million for advertising to support this very successful licensing and cooperative advertising program. Following the creation and launch of the Intel Inside Program, Intel launched its famous PENTIUM trademark in late 1992 and early 1993, with a well-publicized campaign supported by additional extensive advertising by Intel and its licensees. The INTEL and INTEL INSIDE trademarks were prominently associated with the launch of the PENTIUM mark. Since the Intel Inside program's launch, Intel's OEM licensees have advertised and sold billions of dollars worth of computer products bearing the INTEL INSIDE & SWIRL Logo mark. Intel itself has spent billions of dollars advertising the INTEL and INTEL INSIDE marks. In fact, in 2003 alone, Intel spent approximately $1.8 billion on advertising. Through extensive advertising and promotion by Intel and its licensees, advertisements reflecting the INTEL and INTEL INSIDE marks have created millions of impressions.

12. Intel is the owner of numerous U.S. trademark registrations for the mark INTEL INSIDE, including the following:

a. Intel is the owner of U.S. Registered Trademark No. 1,702,463, issued on July 21, 1992, for the INTEL INSIDE & SWIRL Logo for use in connection with microprocessors. This registration, duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office, is valid, subsisting, and incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065. m. Intel is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,194,122 issued on October 6, 1998, for the mark INTEL INSIDE & SWIRL Logo for use in connection with printed materials, namely, books, magazines, newsletters, journals, operating manuals, users guides, pamphlets, and brochures about, for use with and directed to users of, computer operating system software; computer operating programs; computer system extensions; computer system tools; computer system utilities; computer application software; computer firmware; computer hardware; computer peripherals; computer components; integrated circuits; integrated circuit chips; semiconductor processors; semiconductor processor chips; microprocessors; printed circuit boards; electronic circuit boards; computer memory devices; semiconductor memory devices; video circuit boards; audio circuit boards; audio-video circuit boards; video graphic accelerators; multimedia accelerators; video processors; fax/modems; computer hardware and software for the transmission and receipt of facsimiles; computer hardware and software for the development, maintenance, and use of local and wide area computer networks; computer hardware and software for the development, maintenance, and use of interactive audio-video computer conference systems; computer hardware and software for the receipt, display, and use of broadcast video, audio, and digital data signals; and computer hardware and software for development, testing, programming, and production of hardware and software. This registration, duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office, is valid and subsisting. Intel uses the notice of registration, "®," with its INTEL INSIDE & SWIRL Logo mark pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1111. A copy of this registration is attached hereto as Exhibit GG.

13. Intel owns many other trademark registrations for its family of INTEL-based marks. These include: INTEL STRATAFLASH, INTEL INSIDE PENTIUM PROCESSOR & DESIGN, INTEL SPEEDSTEP, INTEL XEON, INTEL INSIDE XEON and INTEL INSIDE PENTIUM !!! & DESIGN, INTEL XSCALE, INTEL NETMERGE, INTEL NETSTRUCTURE, and INTEL NETBURST. Copies of these registrations or evidence thereof are attached hereto as Exhibits HH through QQ.

14. Through its extensive use of the INTEL mark and trade name, Intel also owns common law trademark rights in its INTEL trademark and trade name for all of the goods and services and activities identified herein.

15. Intel maintains an Internet site on the World Wide Web at the address <http://www.intel.com>. Intel has used its trade name and trademark as an Internet address in order to make it easy for customers to locate Intel's web site, and to identify that the web site is owned by Intel. Intel's web site features the INTEL mark, INTEL INSIDE mark, INTEL INSIDE & SWIRL Logo mark and Intel's many other INTEL composite marks.

16. As a consequence of the extensive sales under, and advertising, promotion, and use of the INTEL and INTEL composite marks, Intel has developed enormous recognition for its computer products and services under the INTEL mark and has acquired and enjoys an immensely valuable reputation and tremendous goodwill under the mark. Courts, trademark offices and tribunals around the world, from Belarus, Chile, China and the European Union's Office for Harmonization of the Internal Market ("OHIM"), to the United Kingdom, the United States and Venezuela, have repeatedly determined that the INTEL mark is one of the most famous and well-recognized in the world. The INTEL mark is world renowned, and is a "famous" mark for purposes of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(1).

DEFENDANT'S BUSINESS

17. Intel is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Defendant is an individual, engaged in a general contracting business in Brooklyn, New York. On Intel's information and belief, Defendant filed to register "Intel Contracting Co." as an Assumed Business Name on June 28, 2000. On Intel's further information and belief, Defendant has been using "Intel Contracting Co." as a fictitious business name, trade name and service mark for its services throughout the metropolitan New York area and in interstate commerce.

18. Defendant's INTEL CONTRACTING Mark is legally identical to the INTEL mark because it incorporates the famous and distinctive INTEL mark together with the words "contracting company," which are generic when used in connection with Defendant's general contracting services. The INTEL mark and the dominant portion of INTEL CONTRACTING CO. (i.e. "INTEL") are identical in sight, sound, and commercial impression.

19. Defendant's use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark is likely to cause confusion as to whether Defendant's services originate from or are sponsored by Intel, or whether there is an association or affiliation between Defendant and Intel. Defendant's acts also are diluting and likely to dilute the famous INTEL trademark by whittling away its unique source identifying quality. Commencing in February, 2004, Intel has made several efforts to contact Defendant to clarify the nature of his use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark and Intel's legitimate business concerns about consumer confusion and trademark dilution arising out of that use. Intel's counsel's letters to Defendant of February 27, March 26, May 26, August 4, and October 15, 2004, and of March 16, and June 6, 2005 were unanswered. Telephone calls to Defendant on November 24 and December 2, 2004, and follow up calls on March 14 and March 28, 2005 were not returned. Despite Intel's numerous attempts to explain its position and amicably resolve this dispute over many months, Defendant has persisted in using the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark and has refused voluntarily to change it, leaving Intel no choice but to file this Complaint.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Infringement of Registered Trademark Under Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114)

20. Intel realleges and incorporates herein by reference the matters alleged in Paragraphs 1 through 19 of this Complaint.

21. Defendant either had actual notice and knowledge, or had constructive notice, of Intel's ownership and registrations of the INTEL mark pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1072 prior to its adoption and use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark.

22. Upon information and belief, Defendant was aware of Intel's business and its INTEL mark and registrations prior to the adoption and use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark in connection with the distribution or sale of Defendant's services under the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark.

23. Upon information and belief, Defendant deliberately and willfully used and is using the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark in connection with the distribution or sale of Defendant's services in an attempt to trade on the enormous goodwill, reputation, and selling power established by Intel under the INTEL mark.

24. Upon information and belief, Defendant has distributed and sold, or caused to be distributed and sold, services under the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark within the State of New York and in business directories available in interstate commerce.

25. Upon information and belief, the services distributed or sold by Defendant under the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark are moving and will continue to move through some of the same channels of trade, and are being marketed or advertised and will continue to be distributed and sold through some of the same channels of distribution and sale, and to the same consumers, as Intel's goods and services that are sold and promoted under the INTEL and INTEL composite marks.

26. Intel has not consented to Defendant's use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark.

27. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark falsely indicates to consumers that Defendant's services are in some manner connected with, sponsored by, affiliated with, or related to Intel, Intel's licensees, and the products and services of Intel and Intel's licensees.

28. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark also causes consumers to be confused as to the source, nature and quality of the services that Defendant is promoting or selling.

29. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark in connection with the distribution or sale of its services allows, and will continue to allow, Defendant to receive the benefit of the goodwill established at great labor and expense by Intel and to gain acceptance of Defendant's services, not based on the merits of those services, but on Intel's reputation and goodwill.

30. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark in connection with the distribution or sale of its services deprives Intel of the ability to control the consumer perception of the quality of the goods and services marketed under the INTEL mark, and places Intel's valuable reputation and goodwill in the hands of Defendant, over whom Intel has no control.

31. The aforementioned activities of Defendant have caused confusion and are likely to cause further confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive consumers or potential consumers wishing to purchase Intel's products and services.

32. The aforementioned acts of Defendant constitute federal trademark infringement in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

33. The intentional nature of the aforementioned acts of Defendant makes this an exceptional case pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a).

34. Intel has been, is now, and will be irreparably injured and damaged by Defendant's trademark infringement insofar as the public has been and/or is deceived into believing that the services marketed by Defendant are connected with, sponsored by, affiliated with, or related to Intel.

35. Defendant's conduct has damaged Intel and will, unless enjoined by the Court, further impair the value of Intel's name, reputation, and goodwill. This harm constitutes an injury for which Intel has no adequate remedy at law.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(False Designation of Origin Under Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

36. Intel realleges and incorporates herein by reference the matters alleged in Paragraphs 1 through 35 of this Complaint.

37. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark in connection with the distribution or sale of its services falsely suggests that these services are connected with, sponsored by, affiliated with, or related to Intel.

38. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark constitutes a false designation of origin in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

39. The intentional nature of the aforementioned acts of Defendant makes this an exceptional case pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a).

40. Intel has been, is now, and will likely be irreparably injured and damaged by Defendant's false designation of origin and/or false description insofar as the public has been and/or is induced to believe that Defendant's services are connected with, sponsored by, affiliated with, or related to Intel.

41. Defendant's conduct has damaged Intel and will, unless enjoined by the Court, further impair the value of Intel's name, reputation, and goodwill. This harm constitutes an injury for which Intel has no adequate remedy at law.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION (Trademark Dilution Under the Federal Trademark Dilution Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c))

42. Intel realleges and incorporates herein by reference the matters alleged in paragraphs 1 through 41 of this Complaint.

43. The INTEL mark is world-renowned. It is a famous mark that is widely recognized by consumers, businesses and industry, and that identifies the products and services of Intel in the minds of consumers. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark began after Intel's mark had become famous.

44. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark in connection with the distribution or sale of its services dilutes, and will continue to dilute, the strength of the INTEL mark, which consumers, businesses and industry now associate with Intel and its products and services.

45. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark has, and will continue to have, an adverse effect upon the value and distinctive quality of the INTEL mark. Defendant's acts blur and whittle away at the distinctiveness and identity-evoking quality of the INTEL mark.

46. Defendant's acts dilute the value of Intel's goodwill in connection with the INTEL mark and destroy the exclusive association between Intel and its INTEL and INTEL composite marks.

47. Defendant's acts constitute trademark dilution in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

48. The intentional nature of Defendant's aforementioned acts makes this an exceptional case pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(2) and 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a).

49. The aforementioned acts of trademark dilution have caused, and are causing, irreparable injury to Intel. Unless enjoined by this Court, Defendant will continue to dilute the value of the INTEL mark, causing further irreparable injury to Intel for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Trademark Dilution Under New York Law)

50. Intel realleges and incorporates herein by reference the matters alleged in paragraphs 1 through 49 of this Complaint.

51. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark dilutes and tarnishes the famous INTEL mark and trade name, resulting in damage to Intel and the substantial business and goodwill symbolized by the INTEL mark, in violation of New York General Business Law § 360-1.

52. Defendant's wrongful acts have caused and will continue to cause Intel irreparable harm. Intel has no adequate remedy at law for Defendant's dilution.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Deceptive Acts and Practices Under New York Law)

53. Intel realleges and incorporates herein by reference the matters alleged in paragraphs 1 through 52 of this Complaint.

54. Defendant's acts as described above constitute deceptive acts and practices in violation of N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law §§ 349-350.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Unfair Competition Under New York Law)

55. Intel realleges and incorporates herein by reference the matters alleged in paragraphs 1 through 54 of this Complaint.

56. Defendant's acts as described above constitute unfair methods of competition in violation of N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 360-a.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Common Law Unfair Competition)

57. Intel realleges and incorporates herein by reference the matters alleged in paragraphs 1 through 56 of this Complaint.

58. Defendant's unauthorized use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark constitutes unfair competition under the common law of New York.

WHEREFORE, Intel prays for relief as follows:

1. A judgment, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201, declaring that Defendant, its officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, and representatives and all other persons, firms or corporations in active concert or participation with them, be enjoined and restrained from (1) using in any manner the INTEL mark, or any name and mark that wholly incorporates the INTEL mark or is confusingly similar to or a colorable imitation of this mark, including, without limitation, the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark; (2) doing any act or thing calculated or likely to cause confusion or mistake in the minds of members of the public, or prospective customers of Intel's products or services, as to the source of the products or services offered for sale, distributed, or sold, or likely to deceive members of the public, or prospective customers, into believing that there is some connection between Defendant and Intel; and (3) committing any of the acts which will tarnish, blur, or dilute, or likely to tarnish, blur, or dilute the distinctive quality of the famous INTEL mark;

2. A judgment ordering Defendant, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116(a), to file with this Court and serve upon Intel within thirty (30) days after entry of the injunction, a report in writing under oath setting forth in detail the manner and form in which Defendant has complied with the injunction and implemented adequate and effective means to discontinue services under the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark;

3. A judgment ordering Defendant, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1118, to deliver up for destruction, or to show proof of said destruction or sufficient modification to eliminate the infringing matter, all articles, packages, wrappers, products, displays, labels, signs, circulars, kits, packaging, letterheads, business cards, , promotional items, literature, sales aids, receptacles or other matter in the possession, custody, or under the control of Defendant or its agents or distributors bearing the trademark INTEL in any manner, or any mark that is confusingly similar to or a colorable imitation of this mark, including without limitation the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark, both alone and in combination with other words or terms including all plates, molds, matrices, and other means of making the same;

4. A judgment that Defendant account for and disgorge to Intel all of the profits realized by Defendant, or others acting in concert or participating with Defendant, resulting from Defendant's acts of trademark infringement, false designation of origin, trademark dilution, deceptive trade practices, and unfair competition all relating to Defendant's use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark;

5. A judgment, as to all counts, awarding compensatory and punitive damages suffered plus interest, in an amount to be determined;

6. A judgment that Intel be awarded three times Defendant's profits from its use of the INTEL CONTRACTING Mark, or three times Intel's damages, whichever is greater, together with its reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a) and (b);

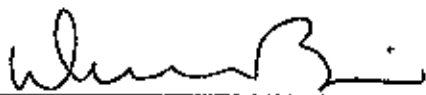

7. A judgment that Intel recover the costs of this action plus interest;

8. A judgment ordering Defendant to take all steps necessary to remove the name "INTEL CONTRACTING," and any other of its business names that contain "Intel," from the records of the offices of the County Clerk of Brooklyn County, New York, the Department of State of the State of New York, and the Secretary of State of any other state in which Defendant or its other entities are incorporated or qualified to do business; and

9. A judgment that Intel be granted such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
